A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO RICHARD PEARCE

These are very exciting times for our beautiful theatre, made possible by outstanding levels of commitment across our employees and volunteers. The success and the confidence in our future we are currently enjoying is only made possible by our loyal and generous supporters and partners, and I wanted to start by saying a massive thank you. We recognise the increased financial pressures many of us are faced with, and yet our audience numbers are increasing, which in turn is allowing us to invest in our iconic Matcham theatre. Every time you purchase a ticket, add a donation, buy a drink or ice cream, and every time one of our Partners helps us by providing a service we would otherwise have to pay for, a contribution is going towards this charity and its future.

We have the job of listening to you and investing where it provides maximum benefits, whilst ensuring long term sustainability. Moving forward, we will be providing more opportunities for you to share your thoughts on where we should invest the funds you have provided. All the people who work and volunteer at The Kings share your love for this theatre, which is clearly demonstrated by their willingness to go above and beyond the expectations of their roles.

The programme for the next 12 months is brimming with variety and quality. Our In-House productions (where every penny of the ticket price goes back into the theatre), include: Charlie and the Chocolate Factory (Oct), Annie (Apr 2025), and the legendary Pompey Panto. This year Jack Edwards celebrates his 10th Panto anniversary as he stars alongside Lorraine Stanley (Eastenders), and BGT winner George Sampson. We also have West-End tours of Heathers, Blood Brothers and Bat out of Hell coming in the next 6 months, with more to follow in 2025.

“Off stage” matters are equally, if not even more, exciting. Our Youth Academy, is expanding its offering and includes scholarship opportunities. I am also delighted to announce that we have just signed a collaboration with City of Portsmouth College whereby part of their Performing Arts BTEC will be hosted every week on our stage. This collaboration will result in a musical theatre further education qualification being reinstated in our city, and we expect this collaboration to grow over time.

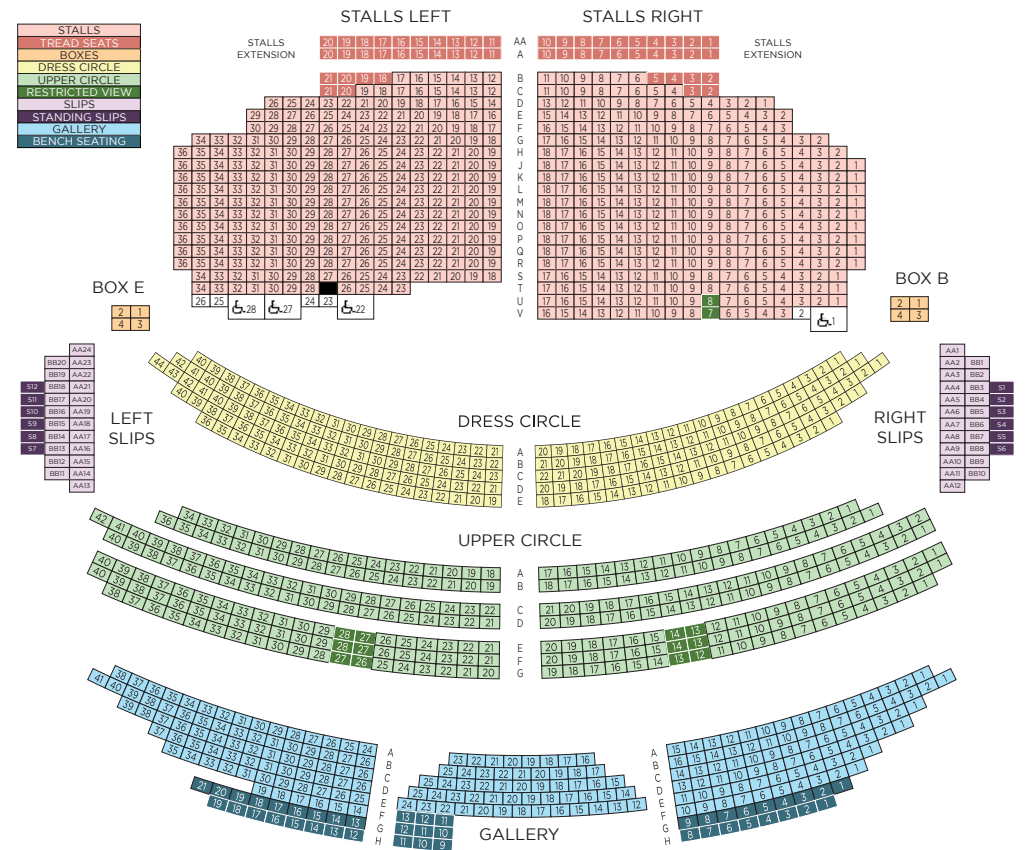

Potentially the most exciting news is regarding our proposed “regeneration” of the derelict shops along Albert Road. As you may be aware this regeneration has been discussed for many years, but it appears that we finally have an outline plan that is supported by all required stakeholders and has financial integrity. Our ambition is that this project can be completed over the next 3 years, with very little disruption to the theatre operations, and will provide transformational facilities for our audience, performers and the wider community. We will be holding consultation opportunities over the coming months and we hope you will support this process.

Exciting times there is no doubt, and I can't over emphasise the appreciation to all of you who are making this possible. Thank you again.

Richard Pearce, CEO

Written by Willy Russell, the legendary Blood Brothers tells the captivating and moving tale of twins who, separated at birth, grow up on opposite sides of the tracks, only to meet again with fateful consequences.

Few musicals have received quite such acclaim as the multi-award winning Blood Brothers. Bill Kenwright Ltd's production surpassed 10,000 performances in London's West End, one of only three musicals ever to achieve that milestone. It has been affectionately christened the 'Standing Ovation Musical', as inevitably it "brings the audience cheering to its feet and roaring its approval" (The Daily Mail).

The superb score includes Bright New Day, Marilyn Monroe and the emotionally charged hit Tell Me It's Not True.

This autumn will see Vivienne Carlyle returning to the iconic role of Mrs. Johnstone, having received nightly standing ovations for her powerful and poignant performance in the West End production.

Sean Jones and Joe Sleight return to the production as twins Mickey and Eddie, with Gemma Brodrick reprising the role of Linda.

Also returning to the cast for 2024 are Sarah Jane Buckley (Mrs Lyons), Scott Anson (Narrator), Tim Churchill (Mr Lyons), Chloe Pole (Donna Marie), Alex Harland (Policeman/Teacher), Graeme Kinniburgh (Postman/Bus Conductor) and Jess Smith (Brenda), with James Ledsham (Sammy), Ben Maberley (Perkins) and Dominic Gore (Neighbour) joining the production.

COMING SOON

The crowning glory of Broadway, the West End and beyond, the international smash hit musical SIX makes its royal return to the King's Theatre following its previous sold out run!

Winner of over 35 international awards including the Tony Award for 'Best Original Score' and 'Best Costume Design', double winner of the Whatsonstage Award for 'Best West End Show' and a Gold-Disk winning album, this sell-out Tudor take-off has 'an incredibly strong and powerful message' (The Australian) and is 'pure entertainment' (New York Times).

From Tudor Queens to Pop Princesses, the six wives of Henry VIII take to the mic to tell their tales, remixing five hundred years of historical heartbreak into an 80-minute celebration of 21st century girl power. These Queens may have green sleeves but their lipstick is rebellious red.

Think you know the rhyme, think again...
