A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO RICHARD PEARCE

We enter 2025 with 'Great Expectations', to coin a phrase from the famous Portsmouthian Charles Dickens.

After years of discussions, numerous plans, and several 'nearly' starts, we now have genuine belief that the 1907 ELEVATION project to regenerate the three derelict shops along Albert Road, situated between our main entrance and stalls entrance, will begin in 2025. There is hope that the completion of the project could coincide with the centenary of our cherished city in 2026. These expectations are only possible because of the support of all our stakeholders. Therefore, I would like to thank you - our loyal audience - along with our employees, our volunteers, Portsmouth City Council and all our partners.

The programme for 2025 looks stronger than ever and we are forecasting to grow audience numbers from the record numbers we experienced in 2024. Having national tours such as SIX, Rob Beckett and Buddy, demonstrates the strides we have made at the Kings and the reputation the theatre and the Portsmouth audience is establishing with acts and promoters. Evolving this reputation and iconic venue status is an aspiration of ours. The 1907 Elevation is a major part of evolving our iconic venue, but alongside this we have many other areas we will be improving across the theatre over the next 10 years, always cognisant of our Edwardian origins. By way of example, we note that the stalls seating is showing signs of wear and tear, and we would love to replace these at some point. We have been looking at other Matcham theatre's that have upgraded their seats in recent times, and we would be looking to consult with our audience before we make any proposals. There will certainly be the opportunity for supporters to sponsor a seat or two!

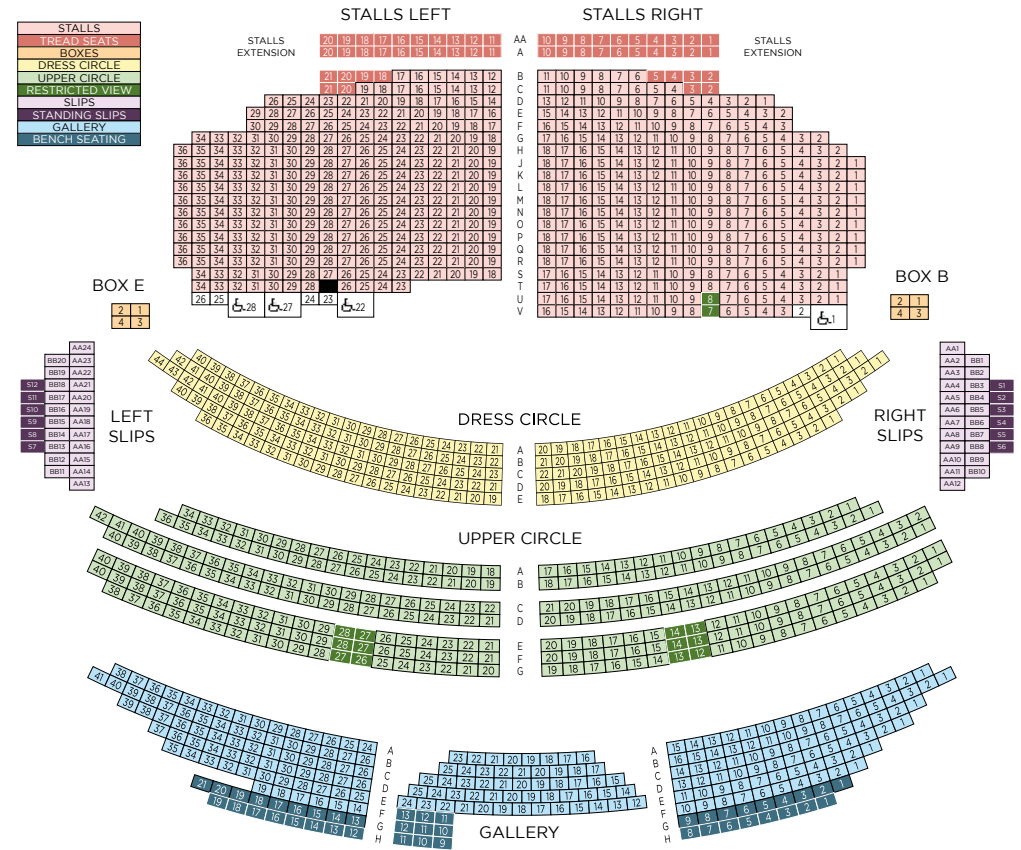

Notwithstanding our aspirations and expectations, we recognise we are a charity that is here to serve our community and as such we are always welcoming of any suggestions or any help that people or businesses may wish to offer. If you would like to contact us, please do visit our website, and I can assure you that all your comments/inputs will be considered.

I hope you share our excitement for the future of the Kings, and we look forward to Entertaining, Engaging and Enriching you for many years to come.

Richard Pearce, CEO

In this brand new show, Lee shares his stage with a tough-talking werewolf comedian from the dark forests of the subconscious who hates humanity. He's approaching sixty with debilitating health conditions, his TV profile has diminished, and his once BAFTA award-winning style of stand-up seems obsolete. But can Lee unleash his inner Man-Wulf to position himself alongside comedy legends like Dave Chappelle, Ricky Gervais and Jordan Peterson at the forefront of side-splitting stadium-stuffing sh*t-posting?
